

Plaza Italia

Important meeting point at the city of Santiago. The neighborhood stands out for its historical buildings and bimodal connectivity that exists towards almost the entire Metropolitan Region. The area has access to important parks, theaters, universities, restaurants and popular bars, with a strong tradition and local identity.

How to get there: Baquedano Metro Station (L1) and (L5)

Barrio Bellavista

www.bellavistabella.cl

With a variety of national and international gastronomic alternatives, on Constitución and Mallinkrodt streets, the neighborhood is recognized for its lively nightlife and its familiar atmosphere right at the feet of San Cristóbal hill (funicular and cable car entrance). It has shops for crafts and souvenirs, theaters and cultural activities. La Chascona House Museum, from Nobel Prize of Literature, Pablo Neruda, is located in the heart of the neighborhood.

How to get there: Metro Baquedano Station (L1) and (L5)

Casa Museo La Chascona

www.fundacionneruda.org

One of the three houses of the Nobel Prize of Literature, Pablo Neruda, who built it, starting in 1953, for his great secret love (at that time) Matilde Urrutia. In her honor, he named the house "La Chascona", alluding to her abundant reddish hair. Nowadays, it is open to the public to exhibit the life of the poet, bringing people closer to his intimate environments in which he lived and created.

Visiting hours:

- Wednesday to Sunday from 10:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m.
- General Admission: $8,000 clp

How to get there: Metro Baquedano Station (L1) and (L5)

- Bars & pubs
- Coffee shops
- Theatres
- Park
- Culture

Barrio Italia

www.barrioitaliachile.com

A neighborhood of crafts in which local design, culture, muralism, heritage and gastronomy come together. Inserted between the communes of Providencia and Ñuñoa, it stands as an ideal sector to enjoy with the family in a relaxed way, in its different cafeterias and restaurants with outdoor terraces and a wide gastronomic offer for all tastes (chilean, vegan, italian, thai, sushi, among others).

Here, every house and corner has its story, the Anticuarios de Caupolicán are a living heritage that must be visited, they have collector's items and trades related to the restoration of furniture and lamps, and a large collection of books and vinyl records. You can find them at Caupolicán street, between Condell and Girardi.

How to get there:

West exit Santa Isabel Metro Station (L5) and walk towards Av. Santa Isabel with Av. Italia

Barrio Manuel Montt

One of the areas with the greatest gastronomic offer in Santiago, it has a wide range of bars and gastronomy restaurants from all over the world, where you can find Mexican, Peruvian, Turkish, Thai, Italian and Chilean food, among others. Avenida Manuel Montt, it's main artery, hosts different types of accommodation, hotels, bed and breakfasts, hostels, among others.

How to get there:

South exit Metro Estación Manuel Montt (L1)

Mall Costanera Center & Sky Costanera

www.mall.costaneracenter.cl

www.skycostanera.cl

The Costanera Center shopping center is the largest in the country, it offers a wide variety of commercial options both national and international brands of clothing, decoration, home, services, sports, pets, movies, entertainment and much more.

In the same place you can access the highest viewpoint in South America, Sky Costanera, where you will have the best panoramic view of Santiago, the Andes Mountains and iconic places of the city, at 300 meters high. Sky 300 Bar & Coffee awaits you with its preparations.

Hours of Operation:

Mall Costanera Center:

Monday to Sunday
from 10:00 a.m. to 8:30 p.m.

Sky costanera:

Monday to Sunday
from 10:00 a.m. to 10:00 p.m.

How to get there:

Tobalaba Metro Station (L1) by exit Luis Thayer Ojeda

Mercado Luis Thayer Ojeda

Local business fair with products such as crafts, jewelry, gourmet, clothing, children's, pets, cosmetics, among others.

Hours of Operation:

Monday to Saturday from 10:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m.

How to get there:

Tobalaba Metro Station North Exit (L1) by Luis Thayer Ojeda exit.

Red de Artesanos de Providencia

Instagram @redartesanosprom

Local handmade crafts made by artisans and entrepreneurs from Providencia, stone work, saddlery, jewelry, clothing, wood, decoration, among others.

Hours of Operation:

Monday to Friday from 11 a.m. to 7 p.m.

How to get there:

North Exit
Pedro de Valdivia Metro Station (L1)

Parque Metropolitano

www.parquemet.cl

The largest green lung in Santiago and the fourth largest urban park in the world, it has spaces for sports, recreation, culture and nature.

Here you can enjoy the bicycle circuits, trekking trails, family outings, playgrounds, Santiago Cable Car, funicular, National Zoo, Japanese Garden and have one of the best views of the city from its viewpoints.

Hours of Operation of the park:

Monday to Sunday and holidays from 6 a.m. to 7 p.m.

Zoológico Nacional:

Tuesday to Sunday and holidays from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.
Closed on Mondays.

People with disabilities, seniors, children under 3 years: FREE

Children: $2,000 clp

Adults: $4,000 clp

How to get there:

Pedro de Valdivia Norte access

Metro Pedro de Valdivia station (L1) or Tobalaba station (L1)(L4)

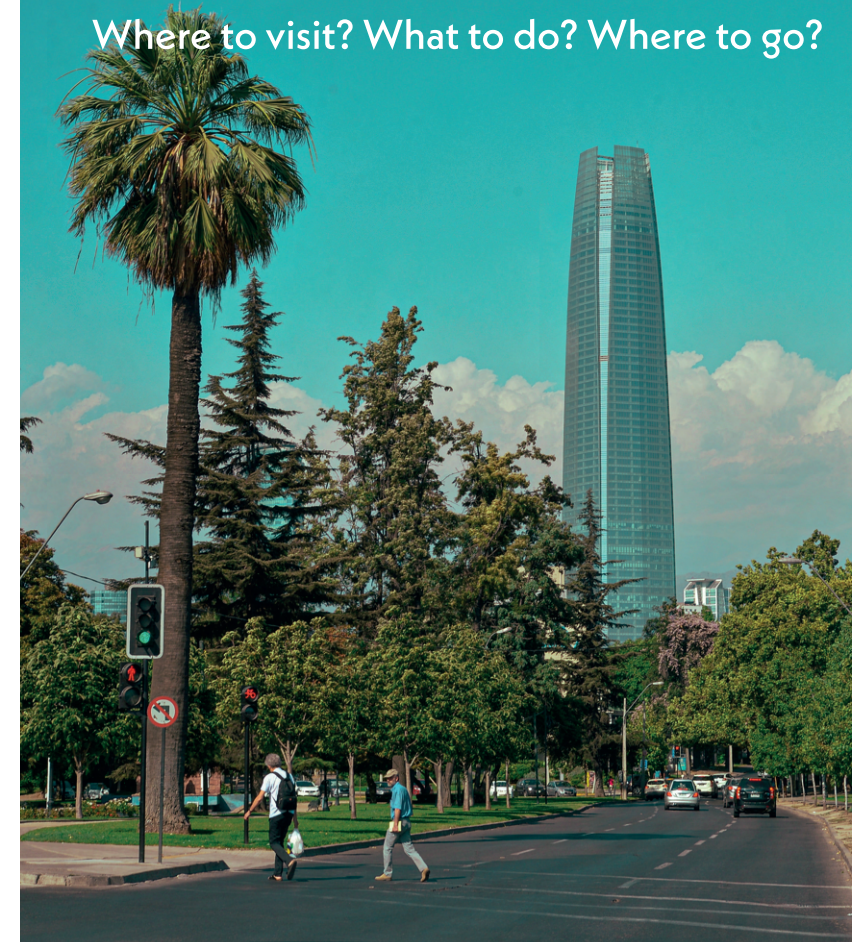

soyprovidencia

HUB Dirección Desarrollo Local

¡Recorre Providencia!

Where to visit? What to do? Where to go?

www.providencia.cl

@hubprovidencia